

INTERESTING EVENTS IN THE LOCAL SOCIAL WORLD

MRS. FRANK HARRISON—Phone 139

At the Federated Church

There will be the usual Sunday services at the Federated Church next Sunday at the hours of 11 o'clock in the morning and at 8 o'clock in the evening. At the morning worship Rev. O. S. Baum will take for his topic "Peter's Shadow"; and the topic for the evening service will be "The Physician Among the Sick." A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend both services.

A Motor Party

A number of Flagstaff people motored over to Tolchaco, the Grand Falls of the Little Colorado River and other points of interest last Saturday, returning on Monday. Of the party were the Misses Mary Francis, Louise Fowler, Lucile Fowler, Mrs. J. B. Francis, Mrs. Fowler; and Messrs. Dan Francis, Henry Spencer, Bud Anderson, and Carl Steckel. While at Tolchaco the party were guests of Carl Steckel, who proved a splendid host.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindblom Are Hosts

A number of friends who are accustomed to meet occasionally for a "Pot-Luck" supper, will enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindblom this evening at their home on East Elm street. Of the group there will be Mrs. F. G. Manning, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Felix Manning, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sullivan, Dr. and Mrs. Hayes Nance, Dr. Tom Manning and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lindblom.

Return from Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Wilson, who have been enjoying a vacation visit of two weeks in California, returned home Monday.

Kiddies Frolic at Farewell Party

Frolics, sports and a spacious yard for their playground were among the delights of an afternoon spent last week by a bevy of small tots at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Heisser. The unique affair was planned as a farewell party for little Vivian and Ralph Heisser, who left recently for a prolonged visit with relatives in the far South. There were 60 little guests present to enjoy an afternoon of real fun, and ice cream and cake were the crowning notes of joy for the little ones.

Dinner at Lake Mary

Monday evening found a group of happy young people enjoying a real chicken dinner down at Lake Mary. Boating and various other kinds of amusements were engaged in after dinner was over. Those enjoying this pleasant outing were: Misses Louise Fowler, Lucile Fowler, Mary Francis, Messrs. Dan Francis, Henry Spencer and Bud Anderson.

Dance at New Auditorium of Normal School a Success

The dance which took place last Friday night in the new auditorium of the Normal school was a pronounced success. The floor, which was fine, the music by Truswell's orchestra, which was splendid, and the interior of the auditorium, which is beautiful, were all conducive to a good time. There were a number of down-town people present, besides a large attendance of Normal students, and together they declare the dance one of the best in the history of the Normal school.

Return from Grand Canyon

Rev. Luther Moore and Mrs. Moore have returned from a delightful three weeks' vacation at the Grand Canyon.

Dancing Party

M. L. Johnson was host at a dancing party recently given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Borum. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and an excellent luncheon was served to Mr. Johnson's guests, who numbered the Misses Thelma Harvison, Thelma Fay, Lillian Munroe, Mary Beckwith, Mabry Henning, Patsy Bell, Katherine Jack, Mrs. Nettie Woodson; and Messrs. Clarence Pulliam, Raymond Prochnow, Roger Morse, Frank Decker, Craig Pottinger, O. J. O'Dell, Stanton Borum, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Borum.

"500" Club meets with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Asselin

With Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Asselin as hosts, a delightful meeting of the "Five Hundred" Club took place at their home on Thursday night of last week. Several unusually pleasant hours were spent over the card tables, and a tempting luncheon, served at the close, added to the pleasures of the evening. Members present numbered Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albers, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hash, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindblom, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. P. Paul Zinn, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waldhaus. Guests who were bidden and who accepted of this hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gassman, Miss Bernardine Gassman, of San Diego; Mr. Gassman, also of San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isham, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Felix Manning, Dr. and Mrs. Hayes Nance, O. P. Bondesson and B. Dawse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pearson Hosts at Dancing Party

A jolly crowd of young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pearson out at the Fort Valley experiment station Wednesday night. The young people who are living at the station and who number Miss Alma Acker, Miss Maude Wilson; Messrs. L. J. Arnold and Earl Kitzner, were the inspiration for the happy affair. The large dining hall provided an ideal dancing room, and with good music and a carefully prepared supper the evening was spent in such a way as not to be forgotten soon. The guests from town included Misses Katherine Bader, Lena Mae Doyle, Mary Francis, Elizabeth Hennessey, Claire Campbell, Louise Greenlaw, Loretta Bondesson; and Messrs. Peaches Hock, Dan Francis, Clarence Pulliam, Rile Lockett, Dolph Bader, Dewey Weber and Mr. Gillette.

From Florida

Mrs. Saunders has arrived from New Smyrna, Florida, and will spend the summer in Flagstaff with her daughter, Miss Alice Saunders, one of the teachers of the Normal school.

Visitors at Lake Mary Hosts to Young People

Down at Lake Mary the cottages are filled with vacationists and there are many who are living in tents. Last evening a number of these visitors were hosts to a large group of our Flagstaff young people. Dancing and music were indulged in until a late hour, and a supper that could not have been surpassed in point of excellence, abundance and variety was served.

To Grand Canyon

An enthusiastic crowd of young people, which will consist of Miss Lucile Fowler, Miss Mary Francis, Miss Louise Greenlaw, Messrs. Dan Francis, Carl Steckel, Dewey Weber and Miss Zella Jones (who will be chaperone of the party), will leave the city early tomorrow morning bound for the Grand Canyon, where they will remain until Monday.

In Honor of Departing Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conard entertained a number of young people at their home Tuesday evening, the occasion being a farewell party in honor of Miss Helen Tate and Miss Bernadette Moritz. These young ladies are to leave Thursday afternoon for Los Angeles, where they will attend school at St. Mary's Academy. The features of the evening were dancing, singing and music. Miss Pearl Bader, Miss Tate, and Miss Moritz rendered several beautiful selections on the piano, and Cornelius Buckley sang a number of the latest songs. During the course of the evening light refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Mrs. Tate, Miss Helen Tate, Miss Bernadette Moritz, the Misses Kathryn, Pearl and Edith Bader, Winifred Regan, Helen Bongberg, and Mary Conard, and the Messrs. Dolph Bader, Wesley Marlar, Ernest Hogan, Cornelius Buckley, Joseph Hanley, William McLurkin, Harold Moritz, John Conard, and Mr. Kittner.

WANTED—Clean cotton rags at The Sun office.

JUDGE DOE CALLED BY HIGHEST OF TRIBUNALS

From 1902 until 1908 he filled the same office by election and served with distinction. He was appointed in 1909 by President Taft as district judge and member of the supreme court of the territory, serving until January 1912.

In recognition of his splendid legal ability, he was elected a member of the first constitutional convention, where he left his impress upon that notable document, though with that unflinching honesty which always guided him in all affairs, he felt it was not all that it should be and refused to attach his signature to the document as completed.

During the later years he has been the legal advisor for the Santa Fe Railway Co., Babbitt Bros., The Saginaw & Manistee Lumber Co., The Arizona Central Bank, and other firms of large interests, for he was an acknowledged master of the legal profession and a man of unassailable honor.

Judge Doe was indeed a disciple of the "Old School"—courtroom and kindly, but with a courage that was indomitable, and ever ready to defend a friend in need. During his life he was the closest friend of the late Dr. Lowell, whose brilliant intellectual attainment attracted him, and they were inseparable when conditions permitted.

For thirty-two years he made his home in Flagstaff, and every year was marked with his impress, and his loss is most keenly felt by friends in every walk of life.

APPOINTED TO GO TO SAN DIEGO TO RECEIVE SHIPS

Among the several hundred people over the state appointed by Governor Campbell to attend the ceremonies on the arrival of the battleships at San Diego, on August 7 are the following from Flagstaff:

Lenore Francis, W. Weber Smith, T. E. Pollock, T. A. Riordan, David Babbitt, M. I. Powers, V. M. Slipper, Ray G. Babbitt, Hugh E. Campbell, Dan Francis, Mrs. E. M. Slipper, Mrs. F. W. Sisson, Dr. M. G. Froncke, Fred Garing.

CAN NOT GET ALONG WITHOUT THE SUN

Holden, La., July 28, '19.

Dear Mr. Breen: Enclosed you will find check to extend my subscription. Find that I can not get along without The Sun; and Mr. McCarroll is also a warm admirer. Needless to say, he is of the same political opinion as yourself, hence his appreciation. And I—well I just like The Sun because I consider it one of the very best little sheets in the country in every way.

Cordially,

MRS. J. F. MCCARROLL.

CAUGHT IN CALIFORNIA

Fermin Arrango, of Flagstaff, was arrested by the Los Angeles police at the request of Sheriff J. L. Harrington, of this county. Arrango had skipped after being informed against as an alleged seller of booze.

Sheriff Harrington and County Attorney F. M. Gold will go to California this week, armed with extradition papers. They will stop at Phoenix to get Governor Campbell's signature to the papers, then go to Sacramento to get the signature of the California governor.

ATTORNEY BOOSTS FLAGSTAFF

Attorney Geo. P. Stovall spent last week in the towns along the Santa Fe in Northern Arizona. While away the barrister visited Prescott, Ash-Fork, Williams, and Flagstaff. He says that Flagstaff is one of the most progressive towns in the state.—The Superior Sun.

Mrs. Jack Kester has just received a letter from her son, Bert Sullivan, first-class sergeant in the signal corps of the regular army, and who was with Pershing in Mexico before he went across the big pond. He is just out of Germany, and hopes to be mustered out soon. He has been a wireless operator with the army of occupation. At one time he was a messenger for the Western Union here.

W. H. Morse, the sign painter and interior decorator, who was so severely burned by a gasoline blaze several weeks ago, expects to exchange his crutches for a cane this week. One leg is just about well, though the other probably will not be entirely healed inside of a couple of months.

David Babbitt, senior member of Babbitt Bros. Trading Co., is on the coast for a few weeks to recuperate as his health has not been of the best the past few months.

Walter Carlson, with Babbitt Bros. Trading Co., spent Sunday visiting friends in Williams.

Ben Harrison, cow man of Prescott, just from overseas, is at the Normal, visiting his sister, a student there.

Ray Babbitt motored to the "C. O." ranch on Sunday, taking with him the Misses Walsh, of the Normal faculty, and Adolph Boenitsch and sister, of Cincinnati.

Ray Ramsey, the candy kid end of the Borum & Ramsey confectionery and bakery, returned Friday from a three-day business trip to Phoenix and Tucson.

Miss Matoaka Wilburn, of Abilene, Tex., who, with her sister, Miss Jessie, has been living in one of the Greenlaw cottages for the last two months, has taken a position as stenographer at the Citizens Bank.

E. T. Mulholland, whose cattle all answer to the "E. T." connected brand around Munds Park and Camp Verde, was in Flagstaff Wednesday, making himself known to old friends again. Unless some one tears the "hull" crust off the country down that way, E. T. feels that they will have considerable to go on for some time to come.

Frank J. Hanley will arrive today to take a position in the Santa Fe ticket and express office. He has been with a bank in Trinidad, Colo. His wife and daughter came a month ago. They will make their home with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Hanley, who for the last eight years has been in charge of the Normal school dining room.

C. H. Burlock, general manager of the Mossback mines, is back from a business trip to Fort Worth, Tex., and will soon be joined by his family, when they will move into the house on West Aspen avenue, recently purchased from E. M. Brown. Mr. Burlock says the new mill will be crushing rock at the Mossback in the early winter.

George Verkamp, manager of the Babbitt garage and auto salesroom, returned Wednesday from a two weeks' vacation in Los Angeles. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Verkamp of Cincinnati, went on to Glacier Park for a few weeks. Dave Babbitt, who went from here with the party, remained in Los Angeles for another week. Mr. Verkamp said he never saw the California hotels so crowded, even in winter, as they are now.

Frank Deckelmeier, of the Babbitt Bros. Trading Co., Phoenix, drove in from that city yesterday with a big Pierce-Arrow truck, on which was loaded George Babbitt's new six-cylinder Buick. The truck, which is a two-ton affair, equipped with 40 x 8 inch rear tires, will be used by Babbitt's grocery department as a delivery truck. Deckelmeier left Phoenix last Friday, but found the roads so bad that he had to lay over for some time until they dried out.

E. B. Newman, of Holbrook, came up on business Tuesday, and to pay a visit to his sister, Mrs. Frank Leslie.

Alf Dickinson, proprietor of the Pine Hotel, has just sold the old Hogan residence, in the western part of town, to Chas. Burlock, the Mossback mines man.

Mrs. John Garrett and her two daughters, Misses Marie and Babe, drove to the foot of the San Francisco peaks last week, spending three days camping, and returned home Sunday.

Lewis Benedict turned his sheep out to graze and has gone to Los Angeles on a couple of weeks' business trip, where he will meet a number of eastern friends who are contemplating a business visit to this section of the country.

Will Marlar is taking out some of the old and putting in new prescription fixtures in the rear of his drug store, planning still more improvements in the future that will enhance both the beauty and convenience of the interior.

John, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jakle, while playing on the sidewalk on Agassiz street, was run into by a boy coasting down the walk on a velocipede. Mrs. Tom Rees picked up the little fellow to soothe him, and found his leg was broken.

Joe Samsky and Miss Agnes Fitzmorris went part way up the San Francisco peaks Sunday, looking for squirrels. Miss Fitzmorris says that though they looked constantly upward at great risk of stumbling over the rocks, they didn't see even one squirrel.

J. J. Costigan, manager of the Orpheum theater, is in receipt of a card from George F. Ryan, formerly a movie magnate in Flagstaff some years ago, dated at Santa Cruz, Cal., in which he says he is on his honeymoon, having been married six months, and is now located at San Francisco.

Fred Garing, to illustrate what the proper selection of seed will do, tells about a potato from New Mexico. It weighed three-fourths of a pound. He planted it, cutting one eye to the piece, and dug 35 pounds of marketable potatoes, besides about 5 pounds of culls.

Chas. C. son of Judge J. E. Jones, got home Tuesday night from Camp Mills, N. Y., where he was mustered out. Charles was in Co. 2, 5th Division, ammunition train. He was in service nearly two years, and overseas for more than a year, being mixed up in the fighting in both the Argonne and St. Mihiel drives.

Lightning struck Judge F. W. Perkins home on North Agassiz street, during the cloudburst of Thursday afternoon, tearing a hole in the roof, scattering the shingles around considerably and breaking the electric light meter. Mrs. Perkins was in the house alone, and both she and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, who was on the back porch of her own home adjoining the Perkins residence, were very much startled, but neither were at all harmed.

J. C. Kelly, the wood man, returned Friday from his two weeks vacation in Minneapolis and St. Paul. He says there was something doing every minute, and admits that he added several pounds to his "heft."

Carl K. Prather leaves today for Flagstaff. He expects to find employment there, provided he is not successful in getting a position as a school teacher, for which he has applied.—St. Johns Observer.

City Clerk Alex. Johnston, with Mrs. Johnston, their two little ones and a servant, will leave about the middle of next week for the California beach resorts, making the trip by auto and remaining away about three weeks.

Rev. Howard Clark, wife and little daughter, came in from Fort Defiance Wednesday and will visit friends here and attend the conference of missionaries to be held on their grounds east of Flagstaff during the month of August.

During the cloudburst last Saturday, lightning struck the back of Frank Leslie's home, burning out the electric lights and telephone, tearing off a door casing and making a hole in the roof. Mrs. Leslie was entertaining a couple of guests at the time and didn't appreciate the interruption a little bit.

Two nieces of Mrs. Frank Leslie, who had been visiting her, left the first of the week, one of them, Miss Ray Newman, of Redwood City, Cal., going to Holbrook to visit her uncle, E. B. Newman, and the other, Miss Merle Taylor, of Beaver Creek, Ariz., going to Cave Creek, Ariz., to visit her aunt, Mrs. Houck.

Miss Cecile Schulz, who has been the guest of Mrs. F. S. Breen for a number of weeks, left Tuesday afternoon for Long Beach, to join her father, who is spending a few months on the coast from Phoenix. Miss Schulz recently graduated as a kindergarten teacher from a Chicago school and expects to enter on her chosen work this fall.

The electrical storm last Saturday afternoon was one of the heaviest of the season, but did little or no damage to property. The rainfall was exceedingly heavy for about a half hour, but was confined to a small area around the city. Lightning played a loud part and cleaned out a chimney at the Hyde residence with no damage and it was reported to have touched at a few other places.
